

Hans-Joachim Eckert
CV

67 years of age

From 1978 to 1998: Inter alia criminal and civil court judge at the Munich I District Court and public prosecutor (team leader) for cases of economic and organized crime at the Munich II Public Prosecution Office

1998/1999: Senior Public Prosecutor at the Munich Higher Regional Court – supervisory activities, combat of money laundering, etc.

1999/2000: Senior Public Prosecutor at the Munich I Public Prosecution Office – Head of a general division

1 March 2000 - 31 August 2003: Head of Division XI at the Munich I Public Prosecution Office – combat of economic crime

1 September 2003 - 30 September 2005: Presiding Judge at the Munich I District Court – focus on drug-related crime

1 October 2005 - 31 July 2015: Presiding Judge at the Munich I District Court – 6th Penal Court for commercial criminal matters, with a focus on cases of corruption, tax evasion and illegal work

Since 2013: Chairman of the Adjudicatory Chamber of the FIFA Ethics Committee

Side-line activities:

Lecturer at the German Judicial Academies in Trier and Wustrau on subjects concerning organized crime, cybercrime and the skimming of profits

Lecturer at Bavarian institutions for the further training of police officers

Lecturer at the Academy of European Law in Trier

Activities and cooperation with the Unité de Coordination de l'Antifraude (OLAF) in Brussels

Contribution to the PHARE Programme of the European Communities for the strengthening of the role of public prosecution in Bulgaria

Special assignments for the European Commission (Peer Reviews in Bulgaria and Serbia), inter alia research on homicides in Bulgaria in connection with organized crime