The FIFA Confederations Cup (“Competition”) is a FIFA event embodied in the FIFA Statutes.

On 2 December 2010, the FIFA Executive Committee designated the Football Union of Russia (“the FUR”) as the Organising Association of the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017. The Organising Association shall be responsible for organising, hosting and staging the Competition, as well as the security for the duration thereof.

3.

The FUR has set up a Local Organising Committee (“LOC”) in the form of a separate legal entity to organise the Competition, in accordance with the Bidding and Hosting Agreement (collectively the Hosting Agreement, “HA”) between FIFA and the FUR.

The FUR and its LOC are collectively referred to as the Organising Association. The Organising Association shall be subject to the supervision and control of FIFA, which has the last word on all matters relevant to the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017. 6.

The FIFA Executive Committee has also appointed the Organising Committee for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 (the “FIFA Organising Committee”) to organise the Competition.

The Regulations for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 (“Regulations”) regulate the rights, duties and responsibilities of all associations taking part in the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 and of the Organising Association by forming an integral part of the HA. The Regulations and all directives, decisions, guidelines and circulars issued by FIFA shall be binding for all parties participating and involved in the preparation, organisation and hosting of the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017.

Any rights associated with the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 that are not granted by these Regulations and/or further regulations, guidelines and decisions as set forth in art. 4 par. 3 of these Regulations and/or specific agreements to a participating member association in the Competition, or to a confederation, belong to FIFA.

9.

The FIFA Statutes and all FIFA regulations in force shall apply. Any reference in these Regulations to the FIFA Statutes and regulations refer to the FIFA Statutes and regulations valid at the time of application.

10.

The FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 shall be played between 17 June and 2 July 2017.

In such cases, the FIFA Disciplinary Committee may also order that the match be replayed.

Any participating member association that withdraws or whose behaviour is liable for a match not being played or being abandoned may be ordered by the FIFA Organising Committee to reimburse FIFA, the Organising Association or any other participating member association for any expenses incurred as a result of its behaviour. 6.

If a participating member association withdraws or a match cannot be played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, the FIFA Organising Committee shall decide on the matter at its sole discretion and take whatever action is deemed necessary. If a match is not played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, the FIFA Organising Committee may in particular order a replay.

Further to the above provision, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles will apply:

If the match was abandoned while the ball was still in play, it shall restart with a dropped ball from the position of the ball when play was stopped;
- h) the kick-off time, date (which shall be foreseen for the following day) and location shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee;
- i) any matters requiring a further decision shall be handled by the FIFA Organising Committee.

Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with a half-time interval of 15 minutes.

3.

If, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, extra time is to be played as the result of a draw at the end of normal playing time, it shall always consist of two periods of 15 minutes each, with an interval of five minutes at the end of normal playing time, but not between the two periods of extra time.

4.

If the score is still level after extra time, penalty kicks shall be taken to determine the winner in accordance with the procedure described in the Laws of the Game.

10 Goal-line technology

Goal-line technology may be used for the purpose of verifying whether a goal has been scored to support the referee's decision.

11 Refereeing

1.

The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials (hereinafter referred to collectively as match officials) shall be appointed for each match by the FIFA Referees Committee. They shall be selected from the FIFA International Refereeing List in force and shall not come from a member association that is represented by a team playing in the group or match in question. A reserve assistant referee shall also be appointed for each match of the Competition. The decisions of the FIFA Referees Committee are final and not subject to appeal.

The match officials shall receive their official refereeing kit and equipment from FIFA. They shall wear and use only this kit and equipment on matchdays.

3.

Match officials shall be given the opportunity to use training facilities.

4.

If the referee is prevented from carrying out his duties, such referee shall be replaced by the fourth official. If one of the assistant referees is prevented from carrying out his duties, such assistant referee shall be replaced by the fourth official or by the reserve assistant referee if and when designated. The FIFA Referees Committee shall be informed immediately.

After each match, the referee shall complete and sign the official FIFA report form (and retain a copy for himself). The referee shall hand it over to the FIFA General Coordinator at the stadium immediately after the match. On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences, such as misconduct of players leading to caution or expulsion, unsporting behaviour by supporters and/or by officials or any other person acting on behalf of an association at the match and any other incident happening before, during and after the match in as much detail as possible.

Disciplinary matters

1.

Disciplinary incidents are dealt with in compliance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code in force and all relevant circulars and directives, with which the participating member associations undertake to comply.

2.

FIFA may introduce new disciplinary rules and disciplinary measures for the duration of the Competition. Such rules shall be communicated to the participating member associations one month before the first match of the Competition at the latest.

3.

In addition, the players agree in particular to:

- a) respect the spirit of fair play, non-violence and the authority of the match officials;
- b) behave accordingly;
- c) refrain from doping as defined by the FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations as well as to accept all other relevant FIFA regulations, circulars and directives.

The participating member associations and their Team Delegation Members shall comply with the FIFA Statutes, the FIFA Disciplinary Code and the FIFA Code of Ethics, in particular in matters regarding the fight against discrimination, racism and match-fixing activities.

5.

Any violations of these Regulations or any other FIFA regulations, circulars, guidelines, directives and/or decisions that do not come under the jurisdiction of another body shall be dealt with by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

13

Medical/Doping

- 1.

In order to prevent players from experiencing sudden cardiac death during matches at the Competition, and to protect players' health, each participating member association shall ensure and confirm to FIFA that its players undergo a pre-competition medical assessment prior to the start of the Competition. FIFA provides an assessment form to all participating member associations.
- 2.

Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision shall be sanctioned by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
- 3.

Doping is strictly prohibited. The FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations, the FIFA Disciplinary Code and all other relevant FIFA regulations, circulars and directives shall apply to the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017.
- 4.

Every player may be subject to in-competition testing at the matches in which he competes and to out-of-competition testing at any time and place.
- 5.

Extreme weather conditions may warrant cooling breaks to be implemented during the course of a match in accordance with the protocols established by the FIFA Medical Committee and/or documented in the FIFA Football Emergency Medicine Manual. Such breaks would be considered on a match-by-match basis. Responsibility for implementing and controlling cooling breaks resides with the referee.
- 6.

A player who experiences a suspected concussion during a match must undergo an examination by the team doctor in accordance with the protocols established by the FIFA Medical Committee and/or documented in the FIFA Football Emergency Medicine Manual. The referee may temporarily suspend play for up to three minutes whenever an incident of suspected concussion occurs. The referee may only allow the injured player to continue playing with the authorisation of the team doctor, who will have the final decision.

14 Disputes

- 1. All disputes in connection with the Competition shall be promptly settled by negotiation.
- 2. In compliance with the FIFA Statutes, participating member associations and their Team Delegation Members may not take disputes to an ordinary court of law but to the exclusive jurisdiction of FIFA.
- 3. The participating member associations and their Team Delegation Members acknowledge and accept that, once all stages of appeal have been exhausted at FIFA, their sole recourse shall be to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (“CAS”) in Lausanne, Switzerland, unless excluded or the decision is declared as final and binding and not subject to appeal. Any arbitration proceedings at CAS shall be governed by the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration.
- 4. Any disputes between FIFA and the Organising Association shall be settled as stipulated in the HA.

15 Protests

- 1. For the purpose of these Regulations, protests are objections of any kind related to events or matters that have a direct effect on matches organised in the Competition, including but not limited to the state of and markings on the pitch, accessory match equipment, eligibility of players, stadium installations and footballs.
- 2. Unless otherwise stipulated in this article, protests shall be submitted in writing to the FIFA Match Commissioner and/or the FIFA General Coordinator within two hours of the conclusion of the match in question and followed up with a full written report, including a copy of the original protest, to be sent in writing by fax or by registered letter to the FIFA general secretariat within 24 hours of the end of the match, otherwise they will be disregarded.

3.

Protests regarding the eligibility of players nominated for matches in the Competition shall be submitted in writing to the FIFA general secretariat no later than five days before the opening match.

4.

Protests regarding the state of the pitch, its surroundings, markings or accessory items (e.g. goals, flag posts or footballs) shall be made in writing to the referee before the start of the match by the head of delegation of the team lodging the protest. If the pitch's playing surface becomes unplayable during a match, the captain of the protesting team shall immediately lodge a protest with the referee in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protests shall be confirmed in writing to the FIFA Match Commissioner and/or the FIFA General Coordinator by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match.

5.

Protests against any incidents that occur during the course of a match shall be made to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has resumed, in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the FIFA Match Commissioner and/or the FIFA General Coordinator by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match.

6.

No protests may be made about the referee's decisions regarding facts connected with play. Such decisions are final and not subject to appeal, unless otherwise stipulated in the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

7.

If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, the FIFA Disciplinary Committee may impose a fine.

8.

If any of the formal conditions of a protest as set out in these Regulations is not met, such protest shall be disregarded by the competent body. Once the final match of the Competition has ended, any protests described in this article shall be disregarded.

9.

The FIFA Organising Committee shall pass decisions on any protests lodged, subject to the exceptions stipulated in these Regulations, the FIFA Statutes or any other FIFA regulations.

16 Commercial rights

FIFA is the original owner of all of the rights emanating from the Competition and any other related events coming under its jurisdiction, without any restrictions as to content, time, place and law. These rights include, among other things, all kinds of financial rights, audiovisual and radio recording, reproduction and broadcasting rights, multimedia rights, marketing and promotional rights and incorporeal rights (such as those pertaining to emblems) as well as rights arising under copyright law, whether currently existing or created in the future, subject to any provision as set forth in specific regulations.

2.

FIFA shall issue Media and Marketing Regulations for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 specifying these commercial and intellectual property rights. All FIFA member associations must comply with these Media and Marketing Regulations for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 and must ensure that their members, officials, players, delegates and other affiliates also comply with these regulations.

17 Number of teams and draw

The number of teams taking part in the Competition is eight. Besides the reigning world champions and the hosts, the six winners of the confederations' competitions (cf. art. 4 par. 1) qualify for the Competition.

2.

The FIFA Organising Committee forms groups for the Competition by seeding and drawing lots in public at the draw. The draw for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 is due to take place in Kazan, Russia on 26 November 2016.

3.

The decisions of the FIFA Organising Committee on the group formation and the duration of the Competition are final. In the event of any withdrawals, the FIFA Organising Committee may change the groups in accordance with the provisions of par. 2 above.

4.

The draw will be organised by FIFA and hosted by the LOC, and will be combined with a Team Workshop (and other related activities) on the Competition.

18 Competition format

The Competition shall be played in a group stage followed by a knockout stage (semi-finals, play-off for third place and final).

2.

In the knockout stage, if a match is level at the end of normal playing time, extra time shall be played (two periods of 15 minutes each) and followed, if necessary, by kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner.

19

Group stage

1.

The eight participating teams will be divided into two groups of four teams.

2.

Each participating member association may play friendly and/or other preparation matches in the host country from the date of arrival in the host country through to the period of the Competition in accordance with the following rules:

- a) prior approval must be given by the host association and FIFA, and the relevant confederations must be informed. FIFA may, in particular, withhold its approval for matches intended to be held as from twenty-

- b) each team must respect the FIFA Media and Marketing Regulations for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017, the FIFA Equipment Regulations and any other relevant FIFA regulations or guidelines.

The rights emanating from an approved friendly and/or other preparation match in the host country including, among others, all kinds of financial rights, audiovisual and radio recording, reproduction and broadcasting rights, multimedia rights, marketing and promotional rights and ticketing rights may be commercialised by the teams participating in such friendly and/or other preparation matches subject to the following conditions:

The FIFA Organising Committee fixes the dates and venues of the matches in the Competition, allowing each team a minimum rest period of at least 48 hours between each match.

Each team taking part in the Competition shall arrive in the host country at least four days before its first match.

4.

Only official team hotels (venue-specific team hotels) under contract with either FIFA or FIFA's designated service company shall be used for the teams' accommodation. FIFA will provide further details about accommodation policies, in particular about the use of venue-specific team hotels, in a circular letter. In principle, the teams shall stay in the venue-specific team hotels the nights before and after the match in question.

24 Stadium infrastructure and equipment

The Organising Association shall ensure that the stadiums and facilities in which the matches of the Competition take place fulfil FIFA requirements and comply with the FIFA Stadium Safety and Security Regulations and other FIFA guidelines and instructions for international matches in force. The stadiums selected for use during the Competition shall be subject to approval by FIFA. The Organising Association is responsible for order and security in and around the stadiums before, during and after the matches.

2.

As a general rule, Competition matches may only be played in all-seater stadiums. The FIFA Stadium Safety and Security Regulations may be used as guidance for the matches with regard to the spectator areas.

The field of play, accessory equipment and all facilities for each match of the Competition shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations.

All goals shall be equipped with white goal posts and white goal nets with dark-coloured support posts. Each stadium shall have spare goals, nets and corner flags located in close proximity to the field of play for contingency purposes.

5.

The pitch shall have the following dimensions: length 105m, width 68m. The total surface area shall have the following dimensions at a minimum: length 125m, width 85m, in order to provide sufficient space for warm-up areas and pitch-side photographer positions.

6.

Matches shall be played on natural grass or, provided special dispensation is granted by FIFA, on artificial surfaces. For natural grass pitches, FIFA's guidelines and requirements shall be followed. In order to ensure that the field of play is of the highest quality, it shall not be used for a non-football event as of two (2) months before the first match held in the stadium in connection with the Competition. In order to ensure that the field of play is of the highest quality, it shall also not be used for any kind of event as of one (1) month before the first match held in the stadium in connection with the Competition. In this case, only a maximum of three (3) players and one (1) official per team may warm up at the same time and without any balls.

Retractable roof

If a stadium has a retractable roof, the FIFA General Coordinator, in consultation with the referee and the two teams' officials, shall decide before the match whether the roof shall be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match coordination meeting on the day before the match, although it may subsequently be modified prior to kick-off in the event of sudden and significant weather condition changes.

9.

If the match starts with the roof closed, it shall remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open and there is a serious deterioration in the weather conditions, the FIFA General Coordinator and the referee have the authority to order its closure during the match. In such an event, the roof is to remain closed until the end of the match.

Stadium clocks, panels/electronic display boards and giant screens

10.

Clocks in the stadium showing the length of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply if extra time is played (i.e. after 15 minutes of each half).

11.

At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This also applies to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time.

12.

Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, shall be used by the fourth official to indicate the substitution of players and the number of minutes to be allowed for time lost.

13.

The use of giant screens must be in compliance with the relevant FIFA instructions.

Floodlights

14.

All matches shall be played under floodlights. The Organising Association shall ensure that all stadiums have floodlighting installations that ensure that the whole pitch is evenly lit according to the minimum FIFA specification of 2,000 lux and is in accordance with the relevant television production standards. An emergency independent power generator shall also be available in each stadium which, in the event of a power failure, shall guarantee at least two-thirds of the FIFA-specified intensity of light for the whole pitch and ensure emergency lighting in the whole stadium.

Exclusive-use period

The stadiums shall be made available to FIFA for its exclusive use and shall be free of any and all commercial activities and identifications, e.g. boards and signage other than those of FIFA's Commercial Affiliates, from at least fifteen (15) days prior to the first use of the stadium in connection with the Competition (such as the first match, training session or other Competition-related event held in the stadium prior to such match) until three (3) days after the last use of the stadium in connection with the Competition.

25 Official training in the stadiums and pre-match warm-up

Official training in the stadiums

1.

Weather permitting, the teams will be entitled to one 60-minute official training session in the stadium where they are due to play on the day before their match. Should a team play more than once in the same stadium, no second training session is currently foreseen. However, based on requests from the teams concerned, FIFA shall take a decision on whether or not to allow a second training session on a case-by-case basis, depending on the pitch conditions.

2.

In principle, a minimum of 60 minutes shall be set between the end of one team's training session and the start of the next team's training session.

3.

Official training times and further information will be communicated by FIFA.

4.

If the pitch is not in good condition or the official training session would negatively affect the state of the pitch, FIFA may limit the area on the pitch for the training session or shorten or cancel the training session and direct the teams only to inspect the pitch wearing training shoes.

Pre-match warm-up5.

On matchdays, the teams shall be entitled to warm up on the pitch before the match, weather and pitch conditions permitting. In principle, such warm-up will be 30 minutes in length. If the pitch is not in good condition or the warm-up would negatively affect the state of the pitch for the match, FIFA may limit the area on the pitch for the warm-up or shorten or cancel the warm-up session.

26

Flags and anthems

1.

During the Competition, the FIFA flag and the flags of Russia and both competing associations shall be flown inside the stadium at every match. The FIFA Fair Play flag and the UN flag shall also be hoisted or draped in the stadium, clearly visible from the VIP box.

2.

The FIFA anthem shall be played while the teams are entering the field, followed by the national anthems of the two teams. The participating member associations shall confirm their national anthem (maximum 90 seconds, no lyrics permitted) to FIFA by the deadline stipulated in the relevant circular.

27

Training sites

1.

Unless otherwise approved by FIFA, all training site pitches shall be 105m x 68m in size.

2.

The training sites shall have the same surface as the match pitches and be in perfect condition, freshly mowed and fully marked in accordance with the Laws of the Game.

3.

The Organising Association shall provide support personnel and suitable training site equipment at all official training sites, including but not limited to cones and movable goals. Each training site shall be equipped with at least one dressing room with lockers, showers and toilets.

Official training sites for the match officials and teams (venue-specific training sites) in excellent condition and situated near the match officials' headquarters hotel and the team hotels shall be made available to FIFA for its exclusive use, and shall be free of any and all commercial activities and identifications, e.g. boards and signage other than those of FIFA's Commercial Affiliates, from at least fifteen (15) days prior to the opening match of the Competition until three (3) days after the final use of the training site by any PMA (or last "official use") or the completion of the final match of the Competition (match officials' training site).

In order to ensure that the field of play is of the highest quality, such official training sites shall not be used for a football match or other event for a period commencing twenty-eight (28) days prior to the opening match of the Competition without the express permission of FIFA.

As from four (4) days before the respective team's first match in the Competition, with the sole exception of the official training sessions in a stadium pursuant to art. 25 above, each team shall only use the official training sites allocated to it (i.e. the venue-specific training site) for any training sessions or preparation matches.

28 Entry form

Associations qualified to take part in the Competition shall confirm their participation by sending the official entry form, duly completed, to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline stipulated in the relevant circular. Entries sent by fax or e-mail shall be confirmed by sending the signed official entry forms by post to the FIFA general secretariat.

29 List of players and accreditation

Release list of players

1.

Each association that qualifies for the Competition shall provide FIFA with a list of no more than 30 players (hereinafter: the release list) whom it has called up in accordance with the relevant provisions of Annexe 1 of the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players. The association must send this release list to FIFA by no later than 18 May 2017.

2.

The release list shall contain information such as the full last name(s), all first names, popular name, name on the shirt, place and date of birth, passport number and expiry date, name and country of the club, height, weight, number of caps attained, number of international goals scored, and it must be sent to FIFA. Further details of the release list, and the deadline by which the list shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, will be stipulated in the relevant circular.

3.

The release lists shall be published by the FIFA general secretariat.

Final list of players

4.

Each participating member association shall then be required to provide FIFA with a final list of 23 players (three of whom shall be goalkeepers) and 17 officials (hereinafter: the final list). This final list is limited to the players on the release list. The association must send this final list to FIFA by no later than 7 June 2017.

5.

The final list should show the full last name(s), all first names, popular name, name and number on the shirt, position, place and date of birth, passport number and expiry date, name and country of the club, height, weight, number of caps attained and number of international goals scored, and shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline stipulated in the relevant circular, using the official form for this purpose.

6.

Only these 23 players (except in cases of force majeure recognised by the FIFA Organising Committee) shall be permitted to compete in the competition. Only the numbers 1 to 23 may be allocated to these players, with number 1 being reserved exclusively for one of the goalkeepers. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the final list.

7.

The final lists shall be published by the FIFA general secretariat.

8.

The final list of 23 players plus 17 officials will constitute the Official Team Delegation list.

Replacement of injured players9.

A player listed on the final list may only be replaced in the event of serious injury up until 24 hours before the kick-off of his team's first match. The replacement players do not need to be limited to the release list. Such replacements must be approved in writing by the FIFA Medical Committee upon receipt and acceptance of a written detailed medical assessment in one of the four official FIFA languages. The FIFA Medical Committee shall approve the request if the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part in the Competition. Upon approval, the participating member association shall immediately nominate a replacement and inform the FIFA general secretariat accordingly (including all the specific player information listed in par. 5 herein as well as a copy of the passport). The replacement player must be assigned the shirt number of the injured player being replaced.

Identity10.

Before the start of the Competition, all listed players must prove their identity, nationality and age by producing their legally valid individual passport with photograph (stating day, month and year of birth). Any player who fails to submit his passport shall not be allowed to take part in the Competition.

Accreditation11.

FIFA shall issue each of the official Team Delegation Members with an accreditation bearing a photograph. In addition, FIFA shall provide a certain number of Supplementary Accreditation Devices (SADs), where applicable, to each team in order to control and restrict access to the dressing rooms and field of play on matchdays. Further details will be given to the teams at the Team Workshop and by means of a circular letter.

12.

Only those players who are in possession of such accreditation are entitled to play in the matches of the Competition. The accreditation should always be available for inspection prior to the start of the match.

13.

Injured players who are replaced up until 24 hours before the kick-off of their team's first match (cf. art. 29 par. 9) must return their accreditation to FIFA and the replacement player will be issued with an accreditation instead. Accordingly, players who have returned their accreditation shall no longer be considered members of the Official Team Delegation list.

14.

The participating member associations shall ensure that all accreditation data required by FIFA is submitted by the deadline stipulated by FIFA. Further details will be outlined in the relevant FIFA circular letter.

30

Release of players to association teams

In accordance with the current Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players, the following rules apply:

- a) The release of players is mandatory for the Competition (cf. annexe 1, art. 1 par. 2 of the above-mentioned regulations);
- b) The players selected by the national team coaches of the participating member associations shall be released by 5 June 2017 (cf. annexe 1, article 1 par. 7 of the above-mentioned regulations);
- c) Since it is not compulsory for a club to release the same player for more than one "A" representative team final competition per year, and given CAF's Africa Cup of Nations 2017 and CONCACAF's Gold Cup 2017, the FIFA Council has granted an exception for the participating member associations of those two confederations affected by the relevant paragraph (cf. annexe 1, art. 1 par. 6 of the above-mentioned regulations).

31

Start list and substitutes' benches

Start list

1.

All 23 players shall be named on each start list (11 selected players and 12 substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of the substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match. The start list shall be signed by the head coach.

2.

Each team is responsible for arriving at the stadium at the latest 90 minutes before the kick-off of the respective match and for providing the completed start list to the FIFA General Coordinator upon such arrival.

3.

Each team is responsible for providing the completed start list to the FIFA General Coordinator at least 85 minutes before kick-off and ensuring that the start list is completed properly and submitted on time.

4.

Any of the 11 players submitted on the start list may be replaced by an eligible substitute, but only if they are unable to begin the match due to injury or illness. The FIFA General Coordinator must be officially informed prior to kick-off. Within 24 hours, the team concerned must also provide FIFA with a medical report issued by the team doctor responsible (in one of the four official languages of FIFA).

5.

Further to the above, any injured or ill player who is removed from the start list will no longer be eligible to take part in the match, and thus cannot be selected as a substitute player at any time during the game. Such a change to the start list will not reduce the number of official substitutions that may be made by a team during the match. In accordance with Law 3 of the Laws of the Game, up to a maximum of three substitutions may still be made.

6.

Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill player who was removed from the start list may be seated on the substitutes' bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.

7.

Only the players who were identified on the start list submitted to the FIFA General Coordinator, or were confirmed as a warm-up injury/illness replacement player, may start the match.

Substitutes' benches8.

No more than 23 people (11 officials and 12 substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. The names of these officials must be indicated on the "Officials on the Substitutes' Bench" form to be provided to the FIFA General Coordinator. A suspended player or official will not be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench.

9.

The use of any electronic communication equipment and/or systems between and/or amongst players and/or technical staff is not permitted. FIFA will provide more information by means of a circular letter.

32 Footballs

1.

The footballs used in the Competition shall be selected and supplied by FIFA.

2.

Each team will receive 30 official match balls from FIFA immediately after the draw as well as 30 additional official match balls upon arrival in the host country. Only these balls may be used for warm-up sessions in the official stadiums and at the official training sites.

33 Team equipment

The participating member associations shall comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations in force during the Competition period. The display of political, religious or personal messages or slogans in any language or form by players and officials on their playing or team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body is prohibited. The similar display of commercial messages and slogans in any language or form by players and officials is not allowed for the duration of their time at any official activity organised by FIFA (including in the stadiums for official matches and training sessions, as well as during official press conferences and mixed-zone activities).

Team colours

Each team shall inform FIFA of two different and contrasting colours (one predominately dark and one predominately light kit) for its official and reserve team kit (shirt, shorts and socks). In addition, each team shall select three contrasting colours for the goalkeepers. These three goalkeeper kits must be distinctly different and contrasting from each other as well as different and contrasting from the official and reserve team kits. This information shall be sent to FIFA on the team colour form. Only these colours may be worn at the matches.

3.

Approximately two months before the start of the Competition, FIFA will inform the teams of the colours that they shall wear for each match of the group stage. As far as possible, each team shall wear its official colours as declared on the team colour form. If the two teams' colours and the match officials' colour might cause confusion, in principle, team A in the official match schedule shall be entitled to wear its official team kit and team B shall use its reserve team kit or, if necessary, both teams may have to wear a combination of their official and reserve team kits. FIFA will endeavour to ensure that each team wears its official team kit at least once during the group stage.

Team kit approval procedure

The participating member associations shall send FIFA a sample of all clothing which will be worn in Competition stadiums (including the official and reserve kit of the players, goalkeepers, officials on the benches and warm-up equipment) for approval. Details on the submission of the kits will be communicated by FIFA via circular letter.

5.

After inspecting the kit, FIFA shall issue a written decision regarding the approval of all submitted articles. Should any article of the team kit or any part thereof not be in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations, the participating member association will be obliged to change it accordingly and re-submit the corrected items within 30 days of the first written decision. These decisions are not subject to appeal.

Players' names and numbers

6.

Throughout the Competition, each player shall wear the number allotted to him on the final list in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations. Such number shall be displayed on the front and back of his shirt and on his shorts in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.

7.

The player's last name or popular name (or abbreviation) shall be affixed above the number on the back of the shirt and shall be clearly legible in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations. The name on the shirt must bear a strong resemblance to the player's popular name as indicated on FIFA's official list of players and in any other official FIFA documentation. In case of doubt, FIFA shall have the final decision regarding the name that appears on the shirt.

Goalkeepers' shirts without name and number

Each team shall supply a set of goalkeeper shirts without names or numbers. These shirts will only be used in those special circumstances in which an outfield player must take the position of goalkeeper during a match. This extra set of goalkeeper shirts must be provided in the same three colours as the regular goalkeeper shirts.

Team kit on matchdays

The official and reserve team kits and all goalkeeper kits (including the goalkeeper shirts without names and numbers) shall be taken to every match.

10.

FIFA shall supply a sufficient number of players' sleeve badges with the official competition logo of the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017, which shall be affixed on the right-hand sleeve of each shirt, and any other badge (FIFA Fair Play, Football for Hope, etc.) which FIFA decides before the tournament, which shall be affixed on the left-hand sleeve. FIFA will issue a circular letter to the participating associations, outlining the instructions for use of the players' sleeve badges.

Warm-up bibs

11.

Only warm-up bibs provided by FIFA may be used during official training sessions held at the stadium and for the warm-up of substitute players during the match.

34 Media

1.

The Organising Association shall be responsible for providing an adequate number of seats and the necessary installations for local and international media representatives (television, press, radio, internet). The conditions to be fulfilled by the Organising Association regarding media facilities and technical installations are specified in the HA.

2.

The Organising Association shall be responsible for preventing journalists, photographers, television and radio commentators and accredited film and television crews from entering the pitch at any time before, during or after the match. Only a limited number of photographers and the television personnel required to operate the broadcasting equipment, all of them issued with special accreditation, may be admitted to the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators.

3.

Media matters and obligations for the competition will be outlined in the Media and Marketing Regulations for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017.

35 Financial provisions

The participating member associations shall be responsible for and bear the costs of the following:

- a) adequate insurance to cover their Team Delegation Members and any other persons carrying out duties on their behalf against all risks, including but not limited to injury, accident, disease and travel in consideration of the applicable FIFA rules or regulations;

- b) board and lodging during the Competition, including rental of meeting rooms and audiovisual technical equipment, in excess of the contribution paid by FIFA (cf. 3b) below;
- c) costs associated with additional members of the association's delegation (in excess of 40 Team Delegation Members).

The Organising Association shall, in accordance with the HA, organise and bear the costs of all domestic travel (road, rail or air) for each Team Delegation Member of each participating member association (a maximum of 40 people per participating member association), including their equipment (up to a maximum weight to be defined by FIFA at a later stage) and all related expenses.

3.

FIFA shall bear the costs of the following:

- a) business-class return flights for 40 people from each participating member association between a city to be designated by the FIFA Organising Committee and the international airport nearest to the venue where the team is scheduled to play its first match. For each delegation's international air travel to the Competition, FIFA may request that the participating member associations use either:
 - i) the airline notified to the participating member associations as being FIFA's designated air carrier; or
 - ii) an appropriate network alliance partner of such designated air carrier (if the designated air carrier does not service the international airports of any participating member association). If, contrary to any such request by FIFA, a participating member association elects not to use FIFA's designated air carrier or an appropriate network alliance partner of such designated air carrier, or if a participating member association elects to charter a private aircraft for the air travel of its delegation, FIFA's obligation will be limited to the amount FIFA would have incurred had the participating member association used FIFA's designated air carrier for its delegation's air travel;

- b) a contribution towards the costs of board (for 40 people) and lodging (35 rooms per night) from each participating member association in accordance with a set tariff to be confirmed in due course, starting four days prior to each team's first match and ending no later than the second day following the team's elimination or the last matchday of the tournament, whichever date is earlier. The FIFA Organising Committee shall determine these rates based on either an average of the prevailing FIFA Confederations Cup sales rates in the official venue-specific team hotels or, in case of considerable price differences between the official venues, according to a fair distribution system;
- c) prize money for the participating member associations, the amounts of which shall be determined by FIFA;
- d) the costs incurred by match officials, referee assessors and FIFA Match Commissioners and other members of the FIFA delegation;
- e) doping control expenses;
- f) the costs of insurance taken out by FIFA to cover its own risks.

4.

The remaining risks – especially those of the Organising Association – shall be covered by supplementary insurance contracts, the premiums of which shall be charged to the Organising Association. To avoid duplication or insufficient insurance cover, these contracts and the extent of insurance cover shall be agreed upon by both FIFA and the Organising Association.

5.

Any expenses and costs incurred by a participating member association other than those mentioned in these Regulations shall be borne by the participating member association concerned (cf. art. 4).

6.

The financial terms and conditions for participating member associations will be regulated in a circular letter.

36 Ticketing

FIFA is responsible for the entire ticketing operation for the Competition.

2.

Each participating member association is entitled to receive complimentary tickets for the Competition. The number of complimentary tickets will be defined by FIFA at a later date.

3.

FIFA and the FIFA Organising Committee will, at a later date, issue special terms and conditions applicable to all ticketing matters, which shall apply to all ticket holders, including but not limited to the associations.

4.

FIFA will, at a later date, issue a ticket allocation agreement for the Competition to each of the participating member associations. All participating member associations must comply with this ticket allocation agreement and ensure that their Team Delegation Members and other affiliates also comply with this agreement.

37 Trophy, awards and medals

1.

The winner of the Competition will be presented with the FIFA Confederations Cup (hereafter: the Trophy), which remains the property of FIFA. The winning team will be provided with the Trophy during a ceremony immediately following the final whistle, and shall return the Trophy to FIFA on demand or prior to departure from Russia, whichever is the sooner. At this time, the winning team shall be provided with the FIFA Confederations Cup Winner's Trophy (hereafter: the Winner's Trophy).

2.

FIFA is responsible for engraving the Trophy with the name of the winning team.

3.

The winning participating member association shall take all reasonable steps, at its own expense, to ensure the security and safety of the Trophy and Winner's Trophy while they are in the possession of the winning participating member association.

4.

It is further agreed that the Winner's Trophy may remain in the temporary custody of the winning participating member association but remains at all times the property of FIFA and must be returned immediately to FIFA if so requested by FIFA in writing.

5.

FIFA will issue, at a later date, Trophy Regulations. The winning participating member association shall ensure its full compliance with these Trophy Regulations within the Media and Marketing Regulations.

6.

A diploma will be presented to the participating member associations ranked first, second and third in the Competition.

7.

Forty medals will be presented to each of the top three teams in the Competition, i.e. gold medals to the winners, silver medals to the runners-up and bronze medals to the team ranked third.

8.

A medal will be presented to each of the match officials who take charge of the play-off for third place and the final.

9.

A fair play contest will be held during the Competition, for which FIFA will draw up special regulations. The FIFA Technical Study Group shall determine the ranking at the end of the competition.

10.

At the conclusion of the Competition, the following special awards will be presented:

The FIFA Fair Play Trophy, a fair play medal for each player and official, a diploma and a voucher for USD 10,000 worth of football equipment

(to be used for youth football development) will be presented to the team finishing first in the fair play contest. The applicable rules are in the fair play contest regulations.

b) Golden, Silver and Bronze Boots

The Golden Boot will be awarded to the player who scores the most goals in the Competition. If two or more players score the same number of goals, the number of assists (as determined by members of the FIFA Technical Study Group) will be decisive. If two or more players are still equal after taking into account the number of assists, the total minutes played in the Competition will be taken into account, with the player playing fewer minutes ranked first. A Silver Boot and a Bronze Boot for the second and third highest goalscorers will also be awarded.

c) Golden, Silver and Bronze Balls

The Golden Ball will be awarded to the best player in the Competition. Further details will be given to the teams by means of a circular letter. A Silver Ball and a Bronze Ball will be awarded to the second- and third-best players.

d) Golden Glove

The Golden Glove will be awarded to the best goalkeeper in the tournament, as selected by the FIFA Technical Study Group.

11.

There are no official awards other than those listed above, unless otherwise decided by the FIFA Organising Committee.

The FIFA Organising Committee shall, in conjunction with the Organising Association, issue any instructions necessitated by special circumstances that may arise in Russia related to the Competition. These instructions shall form an integral part of these Regulations.

39 Matters not provided for and force majeure

Matters not provided for in these Regulations or cases of force majeure shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee.

40 Prevailing set of Regulations

In the case of any discrepancy between these Regulations and any competition regulations issued by a confederation, the text of these Regulations shall prevail.

In the case of any discrepancy between the interpretation of the English, French, Spanish or German texts of these Regulations, the English text shall be authoritative.

42 Copyright

The copyright of the match schedules drawn up in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations shall be the property of FIFA.

43 No waiver

Any such waiver shall only be valid if given in writing. Failure by FIFA to insist upon strict adherence to any provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations, on one or more occasions shall not be considered to be a waiver of, or deprive FIFA of the right to subsequently insist upon strict adherence to, that provision or any other provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations.

I. General provisions

As part of its campaign to promote fair play, FIFA regularly holds a fair play contest during its championships, based on an appraisal of the teams' conduct by a FIFA delegate such as the match commissioner, a member of the Technical Study Group or a member of a standing committee.

2.

The objective of fair play activities is to foster a sporting spirit among players, team officials and spectators, thereby heightening the fans' enjoyment of the game.

3.

At the final whistle of each game, the delegate shall complete the appropriate fair play form after consulting the referee and the referee assessor.

4.

Every match in the competition shall be taken into account.

5.

The FIFA Organising Committee shall compile and publish the classification at the end of the competition. Its decision is final.

6.

FIFA will award the team that wins the fair play contest a trophy, a medal for each player and official, and a diploma, all of which the team can keep permanently. The team shall also receive a voucher valued at USD 10,000, which shall be exchanged for a supply of football equipment to be used exclusively for youth development.

4.

Respect towards the opponent

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations and opponents, etc.

When assessing the players' behaviour towards the opponents, duplication of the judgment for red and yellow cards should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards as well as those overlooked by the referee.

Assessment shall be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than on infringements. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards opponents shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

Respect towards the referee/match officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the match officials and the decisions they take.

A positive attitude towards the referee, including acceptance of decisions without protest, shall be rewarded. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards the match officials shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

Behaviour of the team officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Coaches and other team officials are expected to encourage the sporting, technical, tactical and ethical standards of their team and to direct the players to behave in accordance with the principles of fair play.

Both positive and negative factors in the behaviour of the team officials shall be included in the assessment, such as for instance whether they calm down angry players or how they accept the referee's decisions. Inciting or provoking players shall be rated negatively.

Cooperation with the media shall also be a factor in the assessment. Behaviour that is faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

7.

Behaviour of the crowd

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

The crowd is considered to be an integral part of a football match. Fans can contribute to the positive atmosphere of a match by encouraging their team by cheering and singing, etc. in the spirit of fair play.

Spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee. They should appreciate the opponents' performance regardless of the result and in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or the opponents' supporters.

The maximum number of points (5) may only be awarded if all these requirements have been satisfied, especially as regards creating a positive atmosphere.

This criterion is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, "n.a." (not applicable) shall be entered under this item.

III. Final assessment

1.

The final assessment of a team is obtained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team A:

$$8 + 7 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 4 = 31$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (40):

$$31 \div 40 = 0.775$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.775 \times 1,000 = 775$

If, however, the number of fans supporting a certain team is negligible and the "behaviour of the crowd" criterion consequently disregarded ("n.a." – cf. art. II par. 7 of the fair play contest regulations), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Thus the final assessment would be attained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team B:

$$7 + 8 + 2 + 5 + 2 = 24$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (35):

$$24 \div 35 = 0.686$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.686 \times 1,000 = 686$

The overall assessment of a team during the competition shall be calculated by adding the points attained at each match and dividing this figure by the number of matches played.

2.

Teams that are eliminated after the group stage of the competition shall be excluded from the fair play contest.

In addition to making the assessment, members of FIFA may give a short oral account of the teams' fair play performance to explain the positive and negative factors, which form the basis of their assessment. The account may also point out any outstanding gestures of fair play from a player, official, referee or any other person. However, no additional points shall be awarded for this reason.
